Election/Restrictions

This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species of the claimed invention:

Species I, including claims 1-20, 36-39, relates to a method of providing multi-extension functionality to a group of mobile terminals in wireless communication network which have a common phone number and a caller select at least one mobile sharing the common number.

Species II, including claims 21-30, 40-44, relates to a method of providing multi-extension functionality to a group of mobile terminals in wireless communication network which has subscriber database includes a unique identifier associated with mobile terminal, and further comprising storing in the subscriber database, data indicating the last know position of the respective mobile terminal.

Species III, including claims 31-39, relates to a method of placing a call from any of a group of mobile terminal, in a wireless communication network capable of reporting the telephone number of the originating mobile terminal which has a common number to a group and blocking the reporting of telephone number of the originating mobile terminal if said communication network is incapable of reporting said common number.

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, 1, 21, 31 generic.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.
